GENERAL SLASH IN LOCAL TAXES PREDICTED

NEW RATES TO BE ANNOUNCED HERE SHORTLY

Record Closed Only Few Days Ago Because of Large Delinquent List.

A general decrease in taxes in Pickaway-co was predicted Friday by County Auditor Bryce Briggs. Auditor Briggs based his forecast on the fact that the state levy has been reduced six-tenths of one mill and the county levy two-tenths of a mill. At the same time, township, village and school district authorities have been asked to co-operate by paring their budgets.

New tax rates will be announced within a week or two, he says, which were to have been closed July 20, were held open until a few days ago to permit delinquents to settle.

On July 20, the delinquencies amounted to $79,000, but on actual closing day they had been reduced to approximately $47,000. This is the largest delinquent tax list in many years, according to authorities.

Taxes based on the rates soon to be announced will be payable in December, 1928, and June, 1929.

PROTEST CONCRETE ON HIGHWAY NO. 23

Pickaway and Ross Counties Requested Brick, But Donahy Ignored Them.

Gov. Donahy Friday faced furious protests from officials in Pickaway and Ross counties in connection with the paving of U. S. highway 23, the Circleville-Columbus road.

State Highway Director Harry Ark announced at Columbus Thursday afternoon that the contract to pave, with concrete, the 12-mile stretch north of Bloomington toward the Franklin-co. line, had been awarded to the Clements & Co. of Mt. Gilead, at a bid of $913,604.

This decision was entirely contrary to the wishes of commissioners in Pickaway and Ross counties, according to word from Columbus Friday. Franklin county has built brick, and Pickaway and Ross counties requested that entire road be bricked. The decision was vetoed by the governor, however, and a section of concrete is to be placed in between.

DOT HOUSE, THEN TRY TO BURN IT

The George Speakman home, one mile east of New Holland, was visited by burglars a few days ago who after thoroughly sacking the house set fire to it in an effort to destroy the evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Speakman returned home and discovered the blaze which was extinguished after a quick work. An examination revealed that the house had been plundered and numerous articles stolen. Some of these were scattered about the yard in an effort to ascertain what had been stolen.

ROBBERS PLOT TO LOOT WHOLE OHIO VILLAGE

Flee In Gun Battle With Sheriff After Looting One Store.

EATON, O., Sept. 7.—Because a card party broke up about 2 a. m. today a gang of robbers traveling in a yellow-trimmed sedan bearing Illinois license tags, was unable to carry out a carefully laid plan to loot every business house in this town.

Surprised in a filling station, Andrew Wright, private night watchman, was bound, gagged, robbed of keys to business places, and dumped into a cornfield two miles north of here by four men in the sedan. Meanwhile a fifth man looked over the ground.

Returning to town the robbers entered Spring Brothers department store and were busy carrying out clothing when Kenneth Swisher, deputy sheriff, passed by on his way home from a card party. Swisher opened fire, which was returned by the robbers armed with sawed-off shotguns.

Swisher said one of the robbers was wounded and fell into the auto. The men then sped away with about $50 worth of men's clothing.

Wright freed himself and returned after the robbers had escaped. He said the gang took only the keys, telling him they didn't want his $45.

The Spring store was looted of $1800 worth of merchandise three weeks ago.

QUAKER CITY CHIEF LIQUOR CITY OF U. S.

Ten Million Dollar Booze Ring Operating Unmolested, Dist. Atty. Charges.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Philadelphia was advanced today as a rival of Chicago in the alcohol "racket."

To disclosures regarding vast underworld activity, District Attorney Monaghan added the statement that Philadelphia had become one of the nation's chief distributing centers for bootleg liquor.

Even New York, Monaghan said, was receiving supplies from a $10,000,000 bootleg ring with headquarters in the small but active underworld here.

Monaghan said that 350,000 gallons of alcohol had been diverted from two distilleries into the hands of bootleggers.

"The alcohol was shipped by railroad to all parts of the country," Monaghan said. "Bootleggers openly used trucks to haul the stuff to and from railway yards."

In deference to Monaghan's investigation of vice, the local underworld has barred its usually hospitable doors, and is resting for the moment.

GENERAL SLASH IN LOCAL TAXES PREDICTED

NEW RATES TO BE ANNOUNCED HERE SHORTLY

Record Closed Only Few Days Ago Because of Large Delinquent List.

A general decrease in taxes in Pickaway-co was predicted Friday by County Auditor Bryce Briggs. Auditor Briggs based his forecast on the fact that the state levy has been reduced six-tenths of one mill and the county levy two-tenths of a mill. At the same time, township, village and school district authorities have been asked to co-operate by paring their budgets.

New tax rates will be announced within a week or two. Tax books, which were to have been closed July 20, were held open until a few days ago to permit delinquents to settle.

On July 20, the delinquencies amounted to $79,000, but on actual closing day they had been reduced to approximately $47,000. This is the largest delinquent tax list in many years, according to authorities.

Taxes based on the rates soon to be announced will be payable in December, 1928, and June, 1929.

PROTEST CONCRETE ON HIGHWAY NO. 23

Pickaway and Ross Counties Requested Brick, But Donahy Ignored Them.

Gov. Donahy Friday faced furious protests from officials in Pickaway and Ross counties in connection with the paving of U. S. highway 23, the Circleville-Ambus road.

State Highway Director Harry Kirk announced at Columbus Tuesday afternoon that the contract to pave, with concrete, the five-mile stretch north of Bloomfield toward the Franklin-co. line, had been awarded to the Clements & Co. of Mt. Gilead, at a bid of $9,136.04.

This decision was entirely contrary to the wishes of commissioners in Pickaway and Ross counties, according to word from Columbus Friday. ROBBERS PLOT TO LOOT WHOLE OHIO VILLAGE

Flee In Gun Battle With Sheriff After Looting One Store.

EATON, O., Sept. 7.—Because a card party broke up about 2 a. m. today a gang of robbers traveling in a yellow-trimmed sedan bearing Illinois license tags, was unable to carry out a carefully laid plan to loot every business house in this town.

Surprised in a filling station, Andrew Wright, private night watchman, was bound, gagged, robbed of keys to business places, and dumped into a cornfield two miles north of here by four men in the sedan. Meanwhile a fifth man looked over the ground.

Returning to town the robbers entered Spring Brothers department store and were busy carrying out clothing when Kenneth Swisher, deputy sheriff, passed by on his way home from a card party. Swisher opened fire, which was returned by the robbers armed with sawed-off shotguns.

Swisher said one of the robbers was wounded and fell into the auto. The men then sped away with about $50 worth of men's clothing.

Wright freed himself and returned after the robbers had escaped. He said the gang took only the keys, telling him they didn't want his $45.

The Spring store was looted of $1800 worth of merchandise three weeks ago.

SEPH. HILL DIES AT MONROE-TWP. HOME

Funeral Services Will Be Held Sunday With Burial At Darbyville.

Seph. Hill, 74, retired farmer of Monroe-twp. died early Thursday at his home there.

Mr. Hill lived practically his entire life in Monroe-twp. where he was born March 14, 1854. He married Samantha Dennis on August 21, 1880 and to this union eight children were born, three of whom, with the mother survive.

Those living are Mrs. Rilla Liston, Mrs. Victoria McCafferty and Festus Hill, all of Monroe-twp. He is also survived by three brothers and a sister, Milton Hill of Harrisburg, O.; Landy Hill, Mt. Sterling, O.; and John Hill, Columbus, and Mrs. Rhoda Daugherty of LaFayette, O.

Funeral services, under the direction of C. E. Hill of Williamsport, will be conducted Sunday at the late home in Monroe-twp. at 2 p. m. with Rev. Weiser of the M. E. Church of Mt. Sterling officiating, burial in Darbyville cemetery.

NINE BOMBERS LAND

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 7.—Nine bombing planes from Langley field, Washington, D. C., en route to Los Angeles, landed here today at 8:45 a. m., mountain time, from Midland, Texas, where they remained over night.

The planes left Midland today at 6 a. m. CST. The pilots expected to resume the flight as soon as the bombers had been fueled.

SAY STENOGRAPHER CHARGED TOO MUCH

State Bureau Says Mrs. Watts Owes County $417 In Murder Case.

The State Bureau of Supervision of Public Offices Friday reported that Mrs. Mary R. Watts, official court stenographer, owes Pickaway-co $417 for an overcharge of transcripts she made in a criminal case, according to a United Press dispatch to The Herald from Columbus.

The case was that of the state of Ohio against James Flint, recently convicted of murder.

According to the bureau, Mrs. Watts charged $1,251 for making a transcript and copies of the case. The bureau holds that the amount should not have exceeded $834, and asks that she refund the difference.

The department says Mrs. Watts charged at the rate of 12 cents per 100 words. The transcript contained 655,200 words, but the bureau reports that it is unable to check up the number of copies she made.

CONSOLIDATE SMITH'S FOES, PLAN IN SOUTH

Anti-Smith Democrats and Republicans in Five States To Join Hands.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(UP)—A plan to consolidate anti-Smith democrats and Republicans of the south behind a single group of Hoover electors is being worked out in five southern states, headquarters of Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential candidate, was informed today.

The movement is in the hands of southern Democrats opposed to Gov. Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic nominee, and the Republican national committee is spending no money to promote the project, it was said officially.

The scheme is designed to prevent division of the anti-Smith vote.

Under the electoral system, a ballot is cast not for the presidential candidate but for the elector who is pledged to that candidate. If the anti-Smith democrats put one slate of electors in the field against the regular Republican slate and the regular democratic slate, the anti-Smith vote would be split.

But under the consolidation arrangement both the anti-Smith Democrats and Republicans will be able to vote for the same slate of electors.

The scheme already has been adopted in Georgia and Alabama and is contemplated in Texas, Louisiana and North Carolina, according to reports to the candidate has received. In Florida a Republican slate has been named and in Mississippi there will be three slates.

DRIVES OFF AUTO, CAUGHT BY SHERIFF

Frank Jenkins, 22, Circleville, who was arrested late Thursday by Carl Porter, deputy sheriff, on a warrant sworn out by William Neff, Williamsport, was given a preliminary hearing Friday before Justice George Strawser. The hearing was continued.

According to information received at the sheriff's office, Neff saw Jenkins drive away in his automobile and notified the sheriff. Porter apprehended Jenkins on the Smith land, south of Circleville.

AYE, THEY DID IT 45 LONG YEARS AGO

The Herald and Union of Dec. 19, 1873, said:

Looking over an old ledger we see a long array of names of former subscribers who are indebted to us.

Some of them have moved away, and are lost to sight, although to memory dear. Others are carrying the contribution boxes in our most respectable churches, and others have died, and are now angels in heaven, but they owe us just the same.

QUAKER CITY CHIEF LIQUOR CITY OF U. S.

Ten Million Dollar Booze Ring Operating Unmolested, Dist. Atty. Charges.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Philadelphia was advanced today as a rival of Chicago in the alcohol "racket."

To disclosures regarding vast underworld activity, District Attorney Monaghan added the statement that Philadelphia had become one of the nation's chief distributing centers for bootleg liquor.

Even New York, Monaghan said, was receiving supplies from a $10,000,000 bootleg ring with headquarters in the small but active underworld here.

Monaghan said that 350,000 gallons of alcohol had been diverted from two distilleries into the hands of bootleggers.

"The alcohol was shipped by railroad to all parts of the country," Monaghan said. "Bootleggers openly used trucks to haul the stuff to and from railway yards."

In deference to Monaghan's investigation of vice, the local underworld has barred its usually hospitable doors, and is resting for the moment.

A succession of saloon-keepers was examined by the grand jury yesterday. Among them was Joseph Ferguson, former trainer of some of Max "Boo Boo" Hoff's stable of boxers. Ferguson's place it was said, had run for five years without molestation, and police had been "questing" regarding its freedom. "Boo Boo" has been mentioned as possibly involved "up top" in the bootleg ring.

The grand jury already has returned 182 indictments, most of which are against small operations bootleggers. The major one of these indictments was considered that against Billy Bevans, a former bootlegger who, according to police, dispensed most of the "Jersey applejack." He is charged with conspiring with Arthur Hoeb in an attempt to dispose of $100,000 worth of fine liquor seized in a recent raid.

BOARD TAKES UP SCHOOL CROWDING

Corwin St. Fifth Grade Transferred to Franklin School—Others Rooms Full

Serious congestion in the Circleville public schools was taken up by the school board at a meeting Thursday night.

Supt. Eagleson was authorized to adjust the situation as best he could.

Some pupils will have to be transferred to schools not in their district. The fifth grade of Miss Ruth Stout at Corwin-st. building will be transferred to the Franklin-st. building, in order to accommodate the record number in the class.

The first grade at the Franklin-st. building has more than can be handled and it may be necessary to transfer some of the little tots to another district.

Walnut-st. building is crowded, but can handle all of its pupils. High-st. school has plenty of room for its children.

CHANGE CHURCH WINDOWS

CHICAGO.—The Third Unitarian church here has departed from the custom of having Biblical scenes represented in stained glass windows. It will dedicate a series of windows Sunday which depict modern science, industry, justice and the arts.

Ed. Townley Beats Dayton

REFEREE ENDS HOT BATTLE IN FOURTH ROUND

K. O. Hill of Circleville,
Knocks Out Chippy Miller
In Second Round.

Eddie Townley, nobody's fool in the ring, won over Kid Dayton, of Hayesville, in the fourth round of a scheduled six-round main event of the Empire Club's boxing show at Mason field Thursday night.

Referee Johnny Rooney wisely stopped the proceedings shortly after the fourth round started, and declared Townley the winner. Some of the crowd squawked, of course, but Dayton was plainly out on his feet, and was groggy as his seconds helped him from the ring.

The bout was a sweet one to the fans' eyes. Both boys mixed it furiously for three rounds, with Townley landing most of the blows. Dayton showed plenty of courage in the third when Townley lifted him off his feet with a wallop to the jaw.

When Referee Rooney called a halt, Dayton's seconds protested that Dayton had slipped. Ring-siders, however, saw Dayton wobble under a fusillade of rights and lefts to the face.

K. O. Hill, popular Circleville youth, put the sleeper on Chippy Miller, talkative Columbus boy, in the second round of the semi-final. Some of the fans thought Chippy did a nose dive rather than face

Hill's battering much longer. Chippy proceeded to make a platform speech when he came to, announcing that he had broken a finger and that he would fight Hill "in Columbus any time." The crowd booed him out of the ring.

K. O. Van Flossen of Hayesville, kayaked Kid West, of Columbus, in the third round, when he slipped over a beautiful right to the jaw. The first two rounds were even, but West tired quickly.

Billie Beck and Merle Davis, both 103-pounders of Circleville, opened the evening's festivities with a draw. They stood up and slugged like old-timers. Davis fought in his bare feet.

A good crowd saw the program.

Baseball

YESTERDAY'S HERO—George Harper, utility outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals, whose home run in the tenth inning with Wilson on base gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 4 to 3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Chick Hafey put the Cardinals in the lead in the fifth with a home run with one on base, only to have the Pirates tie the score in the ninth with a home run by Paul Waner with L. Waner on base. Burleigh Grimes allowed but six hits, while the Pirates found Mitchell for seven. In the first half of the tenth, Pittsburgh threatened to sew up the game when Scott singled and scored on Mitchell's long single.

The Chicago White Sox opened a three games series with the Cleveland Indians by winning 2 to 1. Both teams scored their only runs in the first inning. A double by Mostil, a single, a base on balls and a sacrifice fly accounted for the White Sox's runs.

WHAT STARS DID

Paul Waner (.379) hit home run, batting in two runs and scoring one run in four times at bat. Jim Bottomley (.335) went hitless in three times at bat. Scored one run.

Ruth (.330), Gehrig (.376), Simmons (.360), Goslin (.380), Lindstrom (.340), and Hornsby (.376), were idle.

CARDS BOOST LEAD

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—St. Louis increased their lead by a half game on the New York Giants and the Chicago Cubs on Thursday by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4 to 3.

All other games scheduled in both leagues were postponed due to rain.

PHILADELPHIA WILD OVER ITS ATHLETICS

Whole City Already Preparing To Take Part In Another World Series.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—After twelve years, Philadelphia visions another world series.

Not even the startling exposure of graft, corruption and crime now in progress here has caused the Quaker City to lose interest in the Athletics' stirring battle to overtake the New York Yankees.

Although the Athletics have closed their home season, Philadelphia fans are confident that they will be back here in October to meet the St. Louis Cardinals or New York Giants in the world series.

Philadelphia has not had a world series since 1915 when Pat Moran's Phillies won the National league pennant and met the Boston Red Sox in the fall classic. The way the fans are acting here now one might suppose they never had had a world series.

Gambler here are making the Athletics favorites to win the world series if they can cop the American league pennant. They figure Grove, Zolberg, Quinn, Rummel, Earnshaw, Elamke and Orwoll as the best pitching staff in baseball and believe they'll make short work of either the Cardinals or Giants.

Connie Mack's plan to put Fox back on first and Dykes on third seems to be a popular move, as many fans here contribute Fox's recent batting slump to his worry over playing third. They also figure Orwoll will help more in the box than on first.

A large delegation of Philadelphia fans will go to New York Sunday for the double header between the Athletics and Yankees. Special trains will be run to take care of the crowd, and railroad officials expect 10,000 extra passengers.

Connie Mack's announcement that he will pitch Grove and Walberg in the double header against the Yankees was received here enthusiastically. Grove had won his last 13 games and Philadelphia backers believe he and Walberg will left-hand the Yankees out of first place.

A DECIDEDLY DIFFERENT 5-CENT CIGAR

Don't Believe It? Read This:

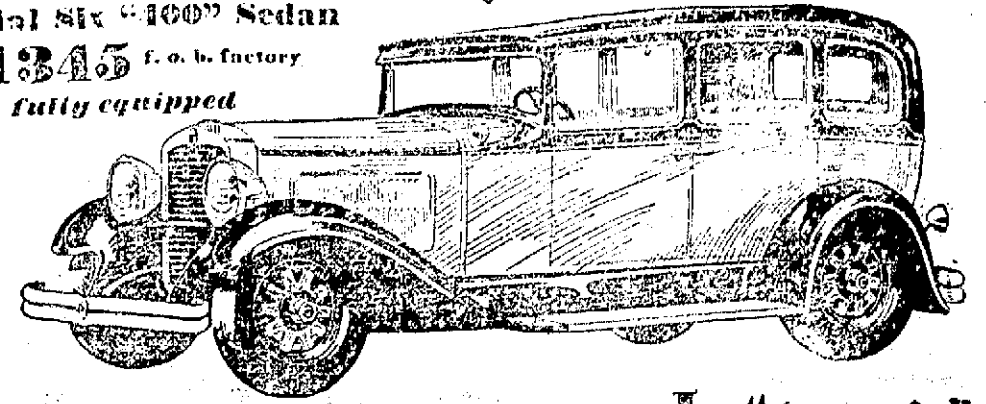

Maybe a lot of 5c cigar brands have got your goat. Forget 'em! Here's one that is different: Havana Ribbon. And how it does put the ordinary "nickeler" to shame! Thirty years on the market! Millions added to millions every year! Surely a cigar has got to have "the goods" to remain a winner so long!

Listen, Havana Ribbon, for five cents, contains tobacco you usually find only in higher-priced cigars: Ripe, long-filler leaves of choice plants. No bitter under-ripe top leaves. No flat-tasting over-ripe bottom leaves. No crumbly "scraps" or short ends to come out in your mouth. But long, zesty, true-tasting, mellow-mild, fully-ripe middle leaves from tip to base. Pretty good, eh? Why, man, it's perfect!

STOMACH TROUBLE ENDED COMPLETELY BY THIS KONJOLA

Terrible Suffering Endured By
This Man; Now Enjoys New
and Glorious Health.

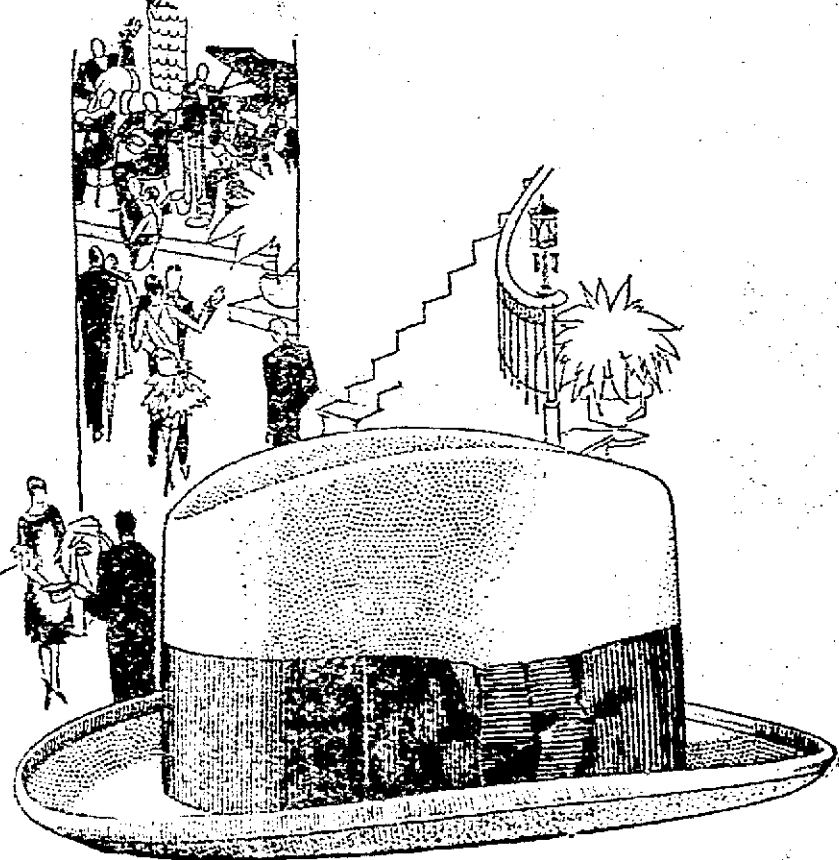

MR. BERT ROTH.

"Konjola made such a change in my health that I will always recommend it to others," said Mr. Bert Roth, R. F. D. No. 2, Wadsworth (near Akron), Ohio.

For almost a year I suffered from stomach trouble and kidney pains. Every meal brought on intense indigestion pains and a bloated condition resulting from quantities of gas that formed. My kidneys were so weak that I was forced to rise several times every night and the next morning I always felt tired and worn-out. These ailments sapped my strength so that I was always half-sick.

Then I started taking Konjola and this medicine helped me immediately. I was able to eat things that I didn't dare touch before and there was not a sign of indigestion or gas bloating. Now my stomach is in perfect condition and I know the relief is permanent. My kidneys have been strengthened so that I can sleep through the entire night without rising a single time. That is my reason for endorsing this medicine to others.

Konjola is sold in Circleville, O., at Mykrantz Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

A DAY!

August Sales 21,000 Cars

—the greatest month in Nash History

Higher and higher goes the nationwide demand for the new Nash "400". Sales returns for August are in and, by thousands of cars, it was the biggest month in the entire 12 years of Nash history.

The three great Nash factories are now producing over 1000 cars a day, to supply the avalanche of orders for this new and finer motor car.

The country has gone Nash! In the eight short weeks since its introduction, approximately 55,000 Nash 400's have been delivered—as many Nash cars as in six full months of 1927!

There's only one conclusion to be drawn from these facts and figures—this is the car of the year!

This is the car with the new Twin-Ignition motor—more power, more speed, less gasoline. The easiest steering, easiest riding car the motor car industry ever has produced. And the car with exquisite new Salon Bodies of surpassing beauty.

STOMACH TROUBLE ENDED COMPLETELY BY THIS KONJOLA

Terrible Suffering Endured By
This Man; Now Enjoys New
and Glorious Health.

MR. BERT ROTH.

"Konjola made such a change in my health that I will always recommend it to others," said Mr. Bert Roth, R. F. D. No. 2, Wadsworth (near Akron) Ohio.

For almost a year I suffered from stomach trouble and kidney pains. Every meal brought on intense indigestion pains and a bloated condition resulting from quantities of gas that formed. My kidneys were so weak that I was forced to rise several times every night and the next morning I always felt tired and worn-out. These ailments sapped my strength so that I was always half-sick.

Then I started taking Konjola and this medicine helped me immediately. I was able to eat things that I didn't dare touch before and there was not a sign of indigestion or gas bloating. Now my stomach is in perfect condition and I know the relief is permanent. My kidneys have been strengthened so that I can sleep through the entire night without rising a single time. That is my reason for endorsing this medicine to others.

Konjola is sold in Circleville, O., at Mykrantz Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

STETSON HATS

JEALOUS HUSBAND ACCUSED OF KILLING HIS SIX-YEAR OLD BROTHER-IN-LAW

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(Up.)—Luigi Panorella continued denials today that he had murdered his six-year-old brother-in-law, Salvatore Santamarco, although he did lead police to the spot where the trussed up body of the little boy was found in a burlap bag.

Police, hardened to crime in this major metropolis, said the murderer was the most atrocious child killing in recent history.

And they blamed Panorella—who they claim to be extremely jealous because his wife would have nothing to do with him—for the crime, although four other men also are held.

Several months ago Luigi married Fanny Santamarco in what police contend was a contract marriage in order to give a name to the daughter that later was born to Fanny. Most of the Italian colony that centers out and round Coney Island knew about the affair, nodded wisely, and approved the fact that Fanny went back to her home after the marriage of honor had been arranged.

But Luigi did not like his wife's having, police learned. He wanted her to return. She refused.

The daughter was born and the mother—a youngster only 16 years old—divided her love between the infant and her six-year-old brother, Salvatore, a milking youngster who was popular in that great tenement district.

"You'll regret leaving. I'll fix you and your family," Panorella told his estranged child-wife, police claim they learned.

Wednesday Luigi met Salvatore and his elder brother Tommy. He invited them to his room to "see some nice things." Tommy was sent on two errands for "sweetmeats."

When he returned the second time he asked for Salvatore.

"He is gone and you better go, too," Luigi is reported by Tommy as saying.

Tommy left and Salvatore never again was seen alive.

Police were advised of Salvatore's disappearance. They investigated. They heard the story of the contract marriage, the threats and then found some boys that reported seeing an Italian near the resort part of Coney Island.

Luigi was arrested and the boys identified him. Then Panorella said he "wanted to come clean."

"I didn't kill him, but I know where his body is," he said.

He led police to the rear of his home and there in a burlap sack was found the body of Salvatore, 15 feet of rope knotted in longshoremen's knots around the body. His face was bruised as though he had been beaten. The flesh on one arm was torn.

AIMEE McPHERSON GOING TO BRITISH ISLES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 7.—Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, was speeding east today, bound for the British Isles, where she is "going to give the devil something to think about."

With her son, Rolph Semple, she left here just two hours after suits charging her with conspiracy in a real estate promotion deal were settled out of court.

Although announcement of her departure was made only an hour before train time, some 2,000 of her foursquare gospel followers were at the station to bid her bon voyage.

The navy is asking bids for 25,000 cook aprons and 51,000 pairs of white trousers.

SMITH TO SPEAK AT OMAHA SEPT. 16

Democratic Candidate Opens Campaign In Heart of Wheat Belt.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Alfred E. Smith will open his speaking campaign in the heart of the wheat belt at Omaha, Neb., with a speech there the night of Tuesday, Sept. 18.

The preliminary itinerary calls for a second speech in Oklahoma City Thursday, Sept. 20, to be followed by an address at Denver, Colo., Saturday, Sept. 22.

Governor Smith said he would remain on his first speaking tour for the following week, returning east to Rochester, Sunday, Sept. 30 for the Democratic state convention opening the next day. He is not ready to announce speeches during that week, he said.

It is probable the Democratic candidate may proceed to the Pacific coast from Denver for a speech in California, but he said it had not been determined definitely whether he would go to the coast.

The governor will leave here on Sunday, Sept. 16, on his special campaign train for Omaha. The train will come here from New York, and the governor and his party will board it here.

GIRL HELD IN JAIL

Charlotte Clark, 19, of Ashville, was still in the Pickaway-co jail Friday following her arrest Monday night by Sheriff Frank Davis. No date has been set for her trial.

She was taken into custody at the school house on the Scioto Trail near Hagerty station near the school.

MILLION SHORTAGE IN CHURCH ACCOUNT

Treasurer Missing As Officials of Mission Board Check Figures.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 7.—Shortage in the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board accounts administered by Clinton S. Carnes, missing treasurer, probably will reach $1,000,000, a statement of church officials said today.

The statement was in effect a report to the 3,000,000 members of the denomination concerning the disappearance of Carnes and succeeding developments.

The $1,000,000 estimate is not official.

HOPE FOR THE LIVING — For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion.—Ecc. 9:4.

PRAYER — We are thankful, Lord, that "while the lamp holds out to burn, the greatest sinner may return."

THE YEAR OF STUDY

The school and college students of Circleville are about beginning one more year of work. It is a big date in their calendar. It is a wide open door of opportunity. The future of a youth is usually either made or broken in the school days.

The young people do not take up school as reluctantly as in former days. Instead of the dry as dust lessons of former years, the tasks are made interesting. Teachers are trained to make them seem vital to young people. As a result the students do not rebel from them nearly as much as formerly. The belief is commonly held among the students that lessons should be studied and learned, which is a great help.

But the problem of distractions and counter interests comes up. The student may enter school with the full purpose to learn, and the conviction that he should learn. But a hundred things come up to interfere. There are the excitements of athletics, the fun of social life, the dances, the shows, the entertainments. Modern youth has infinite opportunities to have a good time before the first term is half over, the original purpose is too often forgotten. The student may be so engrossed with the fun of life that all his resolutions of study have evaporated, and too many of them simply go through the motions, until some sharp warning comes that on that basis they are headed for trouble.

The student needs to realize clearly that the loss of the good results from the year of study leaves gaps that will probably never be filled. One may learn a great deal from study after leaving school. But as a rule the people who leave school without learning the lessons they should learn, have suffered a permanent loss, which will never be made up. These are golden days of opportunity. They never return, young people of Circleville. Make the best of them. You'll never be sorry.

LICENSING AUTO DRIVERS

The next legislature probably will write upon Ohio's statute books a law providing for the licensing of drivers of motor vehicles and revocation of such licenses for certain offenses. Since the defeat of such a bill two years ago, support has been rolling up until passage now seems assured.

The obvious purpose of the proposed measure is to rid the highways of incompetent and reckless drivers. As proposed, the law would deny driving privileges to those who cannot qualify and would revoke those privileges after convicted for reckless or drunken driving.

Probably, the most convincing argument for such a statute is the increasing number of traffic accidents and fatalities. It is apparent to all that there are on the highways many unfit to sit behind the wheel of a motor vehicle. It is equally apparent that those who show an inclination to drive while intoxicated and a tendency toward recklessness or carelessness should lose their driving privileges.

It must not, however, be supposed that the examination of driving-license applicants will guarantee absolute competency. In states where such examinations are now required many poor drivers get by the examiners.

Although enactment of the law will impose another fee upon the motorists, their clubs and associations are supporting the measure. And the argument, heretofore advanced, that enforcement will be costly to the taxpayers seems to have been discarded even in the rural districts which defeated the bill two years ago.

A POEM FOR TODAY
By NORMAN W. RALSTON

SING ME A SONG

SING me a
Song of Life
Sing me a

Lay
Not burdened by Strife,
But of today,

Some simple human
Tune
Of joyous old earth,

Thus let your Lips croon
Nature's rebirth;

Sing of a Child's joy
While he's at play,

Make me again a
Boy
Just for today—

Sing me a
Song of Life,
Sing all day long.

Of happy man
And wife,
Make each note

Strong,
Cheer me
With kindly word,

Make me a kid,
Songs that I
Once have heard,

Things that I did—
And what we mean to say

Is,
Try to be happy
All the day

Long,
Make your life snappy
By singing

A song;
Cast off your Care and woe

Make each
Day seem
Joyous and full

Of go—
Make it a Dream—

Each day's a golden
Jewel
Shining along,

Only a sordid
Fool
Won't sing

A song.

IN YEARS GONE BY

FIVE YEARS AGO
The Muhlenberg-twip central-ized school was dedicated. Superintendent D. W. Macklin acted as chairman at the services.

The Rotary club of Circleville contributed $110 for relief in Japan. Japan struck by an earthquake and followed by fire.

The J. A. Coburn's minstrels showed at the Grand. The Egyptian and skeleton dances were the main features of the show.

A marriage license was issued to Asa Burkhead, 27, machinist, and Jessie Crosby, 25, Madison-twip.

TEN YEARS AGO
Mrs. Virginia Ann Niles, wife of H. T. Niles, of Jackson-twip, died suddenly of heart trouble, aged 64 years.

The Liberty Bird, the daughter of the goose that laid the golden egg, will be sold at public auction in Circleville. The occasion will be a great patriotic demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Yates Monday received a package from their son, Adrian, who is with the Rainbow division in France.

Among other things it contained a trench knife, a cruel looking blade about nine inches long.

15 YEARS AGO
Rev. George W. Miesse, who on Aug. 31, was assigned as pastor of the Calvary Evangelical church in this city was found dead in the bathroom of his home. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time and this was the cause of his death.

Miss Harriet Voll, Washington-st., won four prizes on fancy work at the State fair.

Miss Emma Leist died at her home in Washington-twip, of Bright's disease. She had suffered for more than a year.

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
September 7, 1918.

The French troops are on the north bank of the Aisne, and are occupying trenches held in 1917.

Haz's forces smash through in the Peronne sector, advancing 7 miles beyond the Somme.

The Americans have reached Villers-Bretonneux and are holding on the Aisne front by two miles.

The Germans are massing troops against Canadians.

Love's Ecstasy
by May Christie

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

ALEDA RAY, pretty country girl working in New York as a stenographer, and Gary Chester, young engineer, are in love. Aleida is living with Marise de Renze and the latter's young, sophisticated sister, Goldie. Goldie, jealous maliciously poisons Gary's mind with falsehoods about Aleida. Goldie meets W. B. Lingard, Aleida's employer, who mistakes her for Marise—sweetheart of Aleida's home and there learns that Marise is not her sister—but her mother! She demands an explanation and Marise tells the story of her tragic early marriage to a convict, who has since died. Goldie leaves home.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

ALEDA—who had missed a meeting Gary Chester by a mere matter of minutes—rode up Broadway from her office in an open street-car. She was unaware of the fact that, at this moment, Goldie—who had vainly tried to fascinate Gary, and failed in that, had contrived to plant suspicion in his mind against Aleida concerning the return of the $50—had extracted an invitation from William B. Lingard to dine with him on the Ritz roof that night!

The sequel to this tete-a-tete with Goldie was that Lingard—eager for a meeting with his old sweetheart—had accompanied the girl to Marise's house. The bomb had burst, then, shatteringly, for Goldie! Stealthily listening behind the living-room curtains, she had learned, from Lingard's conversation, that—instead of being Marise's little sister, as she had been brought up to believe—she, Goldie de Renze (in actuality, Goldie Miller!) was Marise's daughter, through a youthful, hidden marriage with—a criminal!

Goldie's rage knew no limits. She would leave immediately. She would shake from her feet forever the dust of this house!

Unconscious of the drama—even tragedy!—that was occurring, Aleida spent the evening by herself.

At 42nd and Broadway she left the street car, walked to the post-office, and in a registered envelope returned the $50 to Mr. Smithson with a curt, scribbled note.

She felt a little better after that, but still too restless and worried to go home.

A sandwich and a cup of coffee at a drug-store counter was her supper. Thereafter she went alone to a picture house.

Her mind full of Gary Chester the love-story on the screen had served to make her loneliness the worse. She stayed through the performance, however. And when she got back to the house on West Fortieth Street, it was after 11 p. m. Aleida went straight to her room. She was awakened a couple of hours later by a flare of light in her eyes. Someone was leaning over her, giving her a little shake.

"Aleida! Wake up! I've just got to talk to someone!"

It was Marise!

Then came the strange tale! "Goldie? Your—daughter? Not a sister?" Sleep forgotten!

Aleida stared at Marise. Marise was sitting on the side of Aleida's bed. Her eyes were blazing with a variety of emotions. She had gripped Aleida's hand, and was clinging to it, as though in desperate need of some support and reassurance.

"And when Goldie got the news, she took it mighty badly! Went on like a fury, and accused me of ruining her life! And look at this note! Aleida!"

Marise held out a scrap of paper—"when I got back from the Harvest Moon, it was in her bedroom, on the bureau. She—oh! the poor child!—the shock's unhinged her! She's run away!" choked Marise.

"Nonsense!" Aleida pulled herself together. "Asounding as no doubt the news had been to Goldie, there was nothing insane about the cruel missive! 'She's only gone off in a huff to one of her girlfriends, and she'll be back tomorrow or the next day! You just wait! And you're nothing in the world to reproach yourself with! You've been a wonderful mother to your sister! I mean, your daughter!'"

Aleida patted Marise's hand sympathetically. "You think so? From the day she was born, I've worked like a slave."

"I'm sure of it. Don't fret over Goldie. She'll be right back." Because she was fond of Marise, and William B. Lingard was her employer, and because her own sore heart was full of Gary Chester and romance—she said, breathlessly: "Do tell me if Mr. Lingard still cares for you, Marise? You know he's never married? It must have been for your sake he remained a bachelor!"

Copyright, 1928, Klotz Features Syndicate, Inc.

A week elapsed then two. No word from Gary. He came neither to the office, nor did he telephone.

As the days went by, Aleida's hopes sank lower.

She heard he was going to Italy. Was to make a report on some Italian water power.

She wanted to call him at the Yale Club. Yet she was shy... at the same time proud... and afraid!

Of his own accord he must get in touch with her. She couldn't take the initiative.

Marise's anxiety about Goldie had been, in a measure, lessened by the news that her young daughter had obtained a dance-engagement in a fashionable hotel in Saratoga. Clive Morrimer, who had gone up to Canada on a rum-running mission, had got wind of the truant's whereabouts and reported to Marise.

"Not a drop of liquor will come into the Harvest Moon as long as I'm hostess and entertainer!" grimly announced Marise. "So if Clive makes a big haul of bootleg, he won't get one cent from my little club!"

The meeting with her long-ago sweetheart, Lingard, had put new courage into Marise. There had been further meetings since the memorable evening when Goldie had made her exit! Despite her worries over her truant daughter, she seemed to be a second blooming and a radiance about Marise.

William B. Lingard, too, looked younger. Much of his gruffness was gone. One day—at four o'clock on a Friday—he said to Aleida: "Tonight I go to Chicago on business, and won't be back before the middle of next week. You look pale and tired. Why don't you take a few days up in your country home and see your people? It will be all right with me if you're back in the office on Thursday."

She flushed at his kind tone, his thoughtfulness. And yet she hesitated, thinking of the expense. "I want to keep you fit. I'll get your transportation."

That evening, she was packing—assisted by Marise—when a ring came at the door-bell of the house on West Fortieth Street. Aleida went down into the lobby and opened the front door.

A policeman stood on the steps. He came forward and said, gravely: "I'm here to take Miss de Renze to the district attorney. Are you the woman I want?"

PRINCE OF WALES
OFF FOR AFRICA

This May Be His Last Empire Tour As Prince Reports Say.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Prince of Wales, accompanied by his brother, Prince Henry, Duke of Gloucester, started today on what may be his last empire tour as Prince of Wales.

The prince and his brother left by train for Dover to sail for East Africa, one of the few parts of the British empire that Wales has not visited. The tour might be described as the final stage in the training of the prince for his eventual reign over 400,000,000 subjects.

The home engagements of the prince have been so numerous that it may be impossible for him to spend more than a few days at a time away from home. In addition, King George, now 63, occasionally experiences periods of indifference to health which, while they would be comparatively trivial to a younger man, cause concern for one of the king's age.

The prince's tour will include visits to Mombasa, Rhodesia, South Africa and Capetown, ending 3,000 miles by rail and automobile.

Visits will be made to some of the "darkest Africa's most remote regions, where the prince will see his first shot at a lion. He has been practicing up on his marksmanship. The prince is likely to encounter every variety of animal ranging from the elephant to the rabbit-sized dik-dik.

RAIDER'S HOME IS DYNAMITED; WIFE INJURED

Chicago Police Captain Had Arrested 64 Men Only Few Hours Before.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(UP)—A dynamite bomb today demolished the front of Police Captain Luke Garrick's home.

The officer's wife, Mrs. Anna E. Garrick, who had been suffering from heart disease, was thrown from her bed by the explosion and taken to a hospital in a critical condition. A 7-month-old grandchild was cut by flying glass.

Captain Garrick a few hours before had led a raid on the club and arrested 64 men. He believed the bombing was the result of the raid.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Wheat showed a firm undertone on the board of trade today and prices made slight advances. Moderate buying power was reflected in corn and oats futures, both making small gains.

At the opening wheat was unchanged to 1-8 cent up, corn was unchanged to 3-8 cent higher and oats were up 1-8 to 1-4 cent. Provisions were slightly higher.

Wheat has been holding around present levels for almost a month and traders believe there will be little change before the government crop report is issued Monday. Hedging pressure is expected soon, but as northwestern farmers are holding their wheat, for better prices, the weight on the market may not be heavy. Snow and rain were reported today at Edmonton, Alta, with a temperature of 34. Other northwestern points had favorable weather.

Corn has been showing good resistance to selling pressure. Light receipts of old corn have kept September strong while a good class of buying has aided the new crop months. According to reports, Buffalo is buying corn in Iowa and shipping it by rail to the east.

It is believed that farmers in the Chicago territory are holding their oats for better prices as receipts have been surprisingly light.

FAREWELL PARTY

tender little speech, as he voiced his appreciation and his family's to the many kindnesses shown them and said among other things that though they should be parted he would keep them in his heart and his prayers. He spoke of a final reunion where human relationship would never more be broken—where no good-byes would be said.

It was a tender hour and though hearts were saddened when the parting came, they realized their loss would be Newark's gain—and as he truly said, "Some day we shall never have to say good-bye."

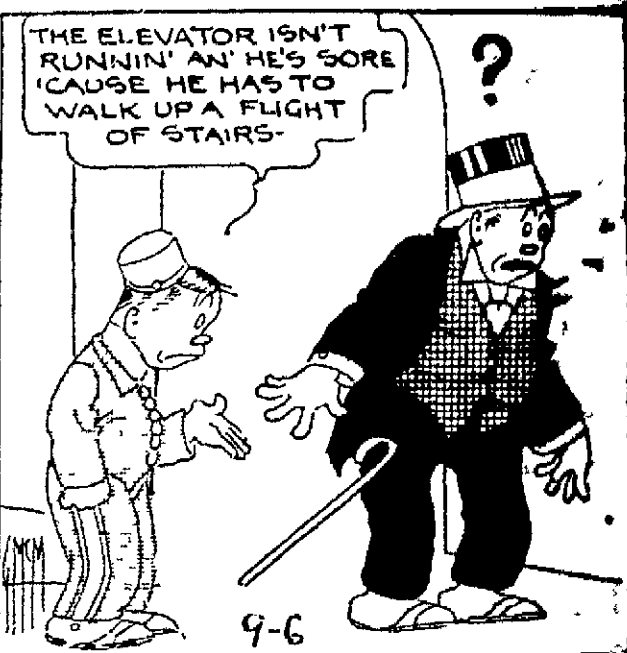

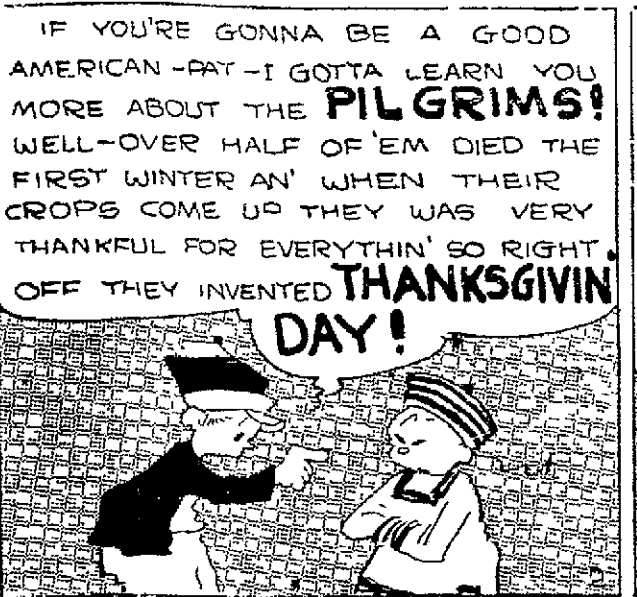

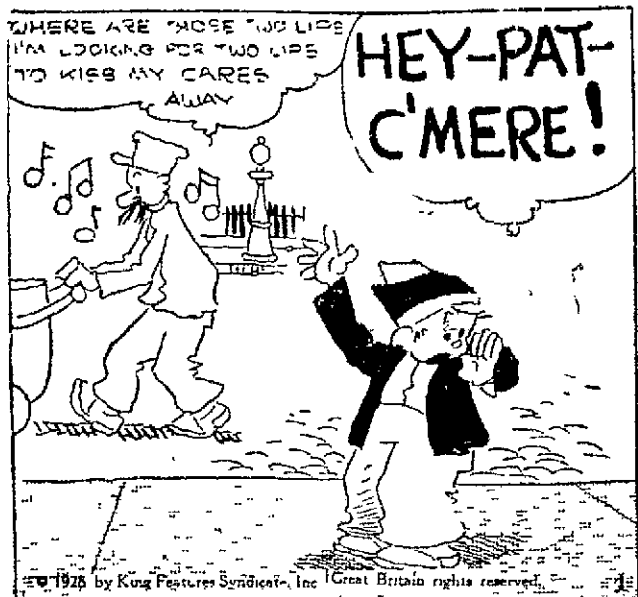

"Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love. The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above."

When we asunder part It gives us inward pain But we shall still be joined in heart And hope to meet again."

James Robinson, 71, farmer residing six miles west of Waverly, was found dead in his woodyard by his wife. Heart trouble was the cause.

Bids will be opened Sept. 25, for the construction of a $7,000 greenhouse unit at the Chillicothe Veterans' Bureau hospital.

NEW CAR SALES HOLDING UP

August is usually considered a slow month in new car sales but Twelve Dealers in Circleville have delivered fifty new cars which is about six below the average for the preceding seven months.

Of this total Yates Motor Co., claim first place with ten Whippets on file for August. This brings their total to seventy-one new and used cars for the last three months.

The Whippet has proven its worth and sales here are keeping in proportion to factory output, where they are working day and night shifts.

Perhaps after all, the bondage does not indicate that justice is blind. Maybe she just wears it to hide the fact that she's slightly cock-eyed.—Life.

THEATRES

"PARTNERS IN CRIME"

Crooks and lovers, melodrama and comedy, thrills and laughter, all combine to make "Partners in Crime," now playing at the Metropolitan Theatre, an entertainment masterpiece.

In this Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton team comedy, Paramount has moulded every element that makes a picture worth going miles to see. "Knife" Reagan and his gang, with the "dud" detective and the fresh reporter, will find a warm reception wherever they go for they portray the stuff that makes the heart beat faster and the laugh muscles ache from exercise.

"Partners in Crime" is something absolutely new, in team comedies. In the first place it is a red blooded melodrama. Without the laughs it stands on its merits as a great bit of dramatic entertainment.

But there are Beery and Hatton and how they do take advantage of the laugh situations in the picture!

Rex, the wonder horse, is the outstanding star of "Wild Beauty," at the Grand theatre tonight. It's a beautiful picture of life on the open range—a girl caught in the stampede of wild horses, beautiful untamed creatures of the west—a melodrama for all animal lovers.

Chapter 3 of "The Scarlet Arrow" also will be shown.

MERCHANTS WILL

START ON SEPT. 16

The Circleville Merchants Football team will play its first game Sunday, Sept. 16, at 2 p. m. against the Clarksburg Independents. Mason's field on N. Court-st. will be used for the games.

The local line-up has not been announced.

Gerald Hanley, manager of the Merchants team, wants all men present at a meeting at Mason's field Friday at 6 p. m. Suits will be distributed.

ARTISTIC SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

The bridge party and shower that began in such a prosaic manner, Thursday night at the home of Miss Evelyn Fohl, finished with plenty excitement, especially for Miss Helen Dunton, the guest of honor.

The guests formed four tables of bridge for the diversion of the evening, after which Miss Virginia Given and Miss Eleanor Snyder were found to have high scores and were given prizes. Miss Dunton and Mrs. Ralph Wallace also received honor guest gifts.

Miss Fohl served tempting refreshments to the guests, assisted by her sister, Miss Marguerite Fohl. Later Miss Dunton was told to go into the dining room where she found the center ceiling light covered with gay green and pink petals. Hanging from the light was a sprinkling can, also covered with these colors. And from the spout of the can poured streamers of paper of these colors, with a veritable shower of gifts tied on the ends, and lying on the table. These were presents for Miss Dunton, who will be married in the near future to Mr. James Adams.

Enjoying the lovely evening were Miss Marian Hitler, Miss Helen Hitler, Miss Helen Snyder, Miss Eleanor Snyder, Miss Catherine May, Miss Ann Bennett, Miss Ruth Cryder, Miss Minnie Lyle, Miss Agnes Newmyer, Miss Helen Schiear, Miss Mary Ellen Phillips, Mrs. Ralph Wallace, Miss Virginia Given and Miss Dunton.

RAIDER'S HOME IS DYNAMITED; WIFE INJURED

Chicago Police Captain Had Arrested 64 Men Only Few Hours Before.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(UP)—A dynamite bomb today demolished the front of Police Captain Luke Garrick's home.
The officer's wife, Mrs. Anna E. Garrick, who had been suffering from heart disease, was thrown from her bed by the explosion and taken to a hospital in a critical condition. A 7-months-old grandchild was cut by flying glass.
Captain Garrick a few hours before had led a raid on the club and arrested 64 men. He believed the bombing was the result of the raid.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Wheat showed a firm undertone on the board of trade today and prices made slight advances. Moderate buying power was reflected in corn and oats futures, both making small gains.

At the opening wheat was unchanged to 1-8 cent up, corn was unchanged to 3-8 cent higher and oats were up 1-8 to 1-4 cent. Provisions were slightly higher.

Wheat has been holding around present levels for almost a month and traders believe there will be little change before the government crop report is issued Monday. Hedging pressure is expected soon, but as northwestern farmers are holding their wheat, for better prices, the weight on the market may not be heavy.

Snow and rain were reported today at Edmonton, Alta, with a temperature of 34. Other northwestern points had favorable weather.

Corn has been showing good resistance to selling pressure. Light receipts of old corn have kept September strong while a good class of buying has aided the new crop months. According to reports, Buffalo is buying corn in Iowa and shipping it by rail to the east.

It is believed that farmers in the Chicago territory are holding their oats for better prices as receipts have been surprisingly light.

tender little speech, as he voiced his appreciation and his family's to the many kindnesses shown them and said among other things that though they should be parted he would keep them in his heart and his prayers. He spoke of a final reunion where human relationship would never more be broken—where no good-byes would be said.

It was a tender hour and though hearts were saddened when the parting came, they realized their loss would be Newark's gain—and as he truly said, "Some day we shall never have to say good-bye."

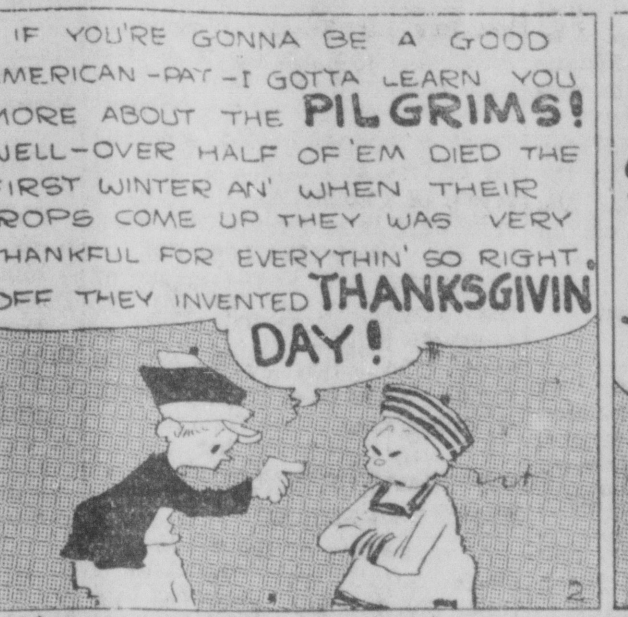

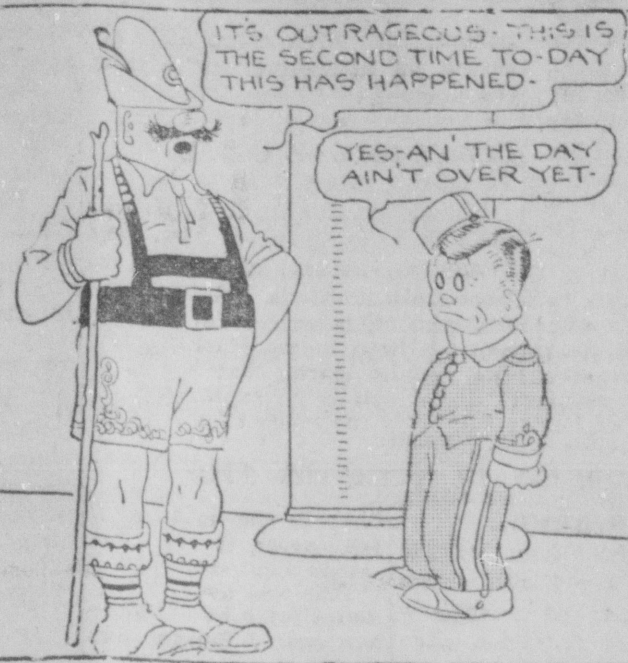

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love.
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above."
When we asunder part
It gives us inward pain
But we shall still be joined in heart—And hope to meet again."

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS AT U. B. CHURCH

The Woman's Missionary society of the United Brethren church met Thursday afternoon in the Community House. The president, Mrs. Orpha Kirkwood, was the leader for the day. The subject was "Christ, the Great Missionary," and the Bible study and worship period were built around this thought.

Mrs. D. B. Klingensmith read a paper, "Jesus and His Program." Mrs. Kirkwood recited a pretty little poem, "I Met the Master, Face to Face."

A general discussion followed led by the leader on the question, "What are the Characteristics of a Real Christian?" All took part in this and several splendid thoughts were given—the keynote being, "We must deny ourselves (our worldly pleasures) and take up our cross and follow Him."

A business session followed during which plans were partially made for the fall campaign to be held in October. Meeting then closed with prayer.

BOWSER-WOLFE FAMILIES MEET AT STOUTSVILLE

The Bowser and Wolfe reunion was held at the Stoutsville camp ground Sunday, Sept. 2. About 75 relatives and friends attended from Stoutsville, Circleville, Mechanicsburg, Mt. Sterling, Columbus, Brighton and Indiana.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mr. Isaac Bolender, Columbus; vice president, Mrs. Harley Tracey, Mt. Sterling; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Pearl Bowsher, Mt. Sterling.

The next reunion will be held at Anderson Spring Park the first Sunday in September.

GIRLS' CLUB HAS MEETING

The Monroe Champion Clothing club held their tenth regular meeting Sept. 4th, at the home of Mary Downs.

The meeting was called to order by the president, who opened the meeting by singing, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," followed by scripture reading and the Lord's prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll was called by the secretary.

The first, second, third and fourth years will give single demonstrations at the next meeting.

Plans for a weiner roast were made by the members of which there were fourteen present, and also seven visitors.

Refreshments were served and after a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Downs and her daughters, the meeting was adjourned. No definite date was set for the next meeting.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.
